NCCP COMPETITION COACH SPECIALIST ADMISSIONS

OVERVIEW

Competition Coach Specialists are capable of teaching the competitive equestrian in the candidate's area of specialization. Competition Coach Specialists will work with intermediate and/or more advanced riders to further develop basic riding, horsemanship and safety skills. They are working to advance students from Provincial/Territorial to National level competitions. The Competition Coach Specialist should also be able to evaluate a horse and its suitability for a student, supervise stable operations and routines, and have experience training and preparing horses for competition. LTED-Learn to Compete, Train the Competitor and the Learning and Training to Win stages. Candidates will specialize in one discipline; however, they are expected to be conversant in all English or Western disciplines. Candidates must have had competitive experience. The following NCCP Competition Coach Specialist certifications are offered by Equestrian Canada (EC):

- Dressage Specialist
- Eventing Specialist
- General Performance Specialist
- Jumping Specialist
- Reining Specialist
- Speed Events Specialist
